Dear Students and Parents,

Executive Vice-President for Education

Notice : Classes in the latter half of January

In response to the recent surge in COVID-19 infections, Kagoshima University will conduct distance learning classes (online) after January 18 (Monday).

Some classes may be conducted face-to-face. For details, please follow the instructions from your faculty, graduate school, the Center for General Education, or the person in charge of the class.

In addition, the method of conducting final examinations may be changed, so please pay close attention to the notices from each faculty or graduate school.
