Dear Students and Parents,

Executive Vice-President for Education

Notice：Classes in the first half of January

In order to prevent the spread of COVID-19 infection for students, it is necessary to stagger the students' return to their homes. Therefore, classes at the beginning of the year will be limited to distance learning classes from January 4 (Monday) to January 15 (Friday).

Face-to-face classes will resume on Monday, January 18 (Monday). For more details, please follow the instructions of each faculty, graduate school, or the Center for General Education.
