

2026 Academic Year(Second Semester) Kagoshima University Tuition Fee Exemption Application

1. Eligibility

- ① Graduate students (including privately-funded international students)
- ② Undergraduate students (Privately-funded international undergraduate students)

2. Application method and schedule

Obtain the Application Guidelines for Tuition Fee Exemption [Proprietary System] and the List of Forms from the University website.

- University website > Education and Student Life > Tuition and Financial Aid > Tuition Fee Exemption and Entrance Fee Exemption/Deferment > Kagoshima University's ...Tuition Fee Exemption [Proprietary System]

I) Applicants for the first semester of the 2026 academic year

If there are no changes in your application from the first semester, submit a “① Application for continuation.”

If there are changes in your application from the first semester, submit a “② Application for changes.”

* Changes refers to changes in your family situation (change in the number of dependents) or household finances (change in the income of the head of household, etc.) between the time of your first semester application and October 1, 2026. In addition, if you have renewed the period of validity of any official certificates (residence card, health insurance eligibility certificate, etc.), you need to submit a copy of the renewed certificate.

	Application method	Application period (deadline strictly enforced)
① Application for continuation	 Apply online (The URL will be posted on the website.)	9:00 Thursday, 1 October to 17:00 Friday, 9 October.
② Application for changes	 Submit “7. Confirmation of reason for change” on pages 13 to 16 of the Application Guidelines for Tuition Fee Exemption [Proprietary System] and any documents necessary to prove the change.	Thursday, October 1 to Friday, October 9 * If submitting in person, the deadline is 17:00 9 October. * If sending by post, submissions are valid with a postmark up until 9 October.

II) Second semester application (for those applying for the second semester without applying for the first semester)

Complete ① online registration and ② document submission.

* However, ① online registration will not be conducted for those enrolling in October 2026. After enrolling, complete ② document submission only.

	① Online registration period	② Document submission period (deadline strictly enforced)
Second semester application	9:00 Thursday, 10 September to 17:00 to Thursday, 24 September. (The URL will be posted on the website.)	Thursday, 1 October to Friday, 9 October * If submitting in person, the deadline is 17:00. * If sending by post, submissions are valid with a postmark up until 9 October.

3. Document submission method

Applications may be submitted by post or in person.

- If submitting by post: The address to send documents is provided in the Application Guidelines. Send by Letter Pack(available from Japan Post).
- If submitting in person: Insert into the white box installed at the Tuition Fee Exemption Counter, Student Life Section, 1st Floor, General Education Building 1, Korimoto Campus

Scan here for the webpage

[Important] In principle, documents will not be accepted outside the application period.

Be sure to check the website for other details.