

March 13, 2023

Dear Students,

Executive Director for Education

Notice: Policy for Conducting Classes in 2023AY

Kagoshima University has established the following policy for conducting classes in the 2023 academic year as following.

1. We will mainly conduct face-to-face classes same as the Covid-19.
2. Distance learning classes (online), lecture-type classes with a large number of students, subjects for which the advantages of distance learning classes (online) can be utilized, will be delivered in real time using the Zoom web conferencing software, or on-demand learning management systems such as manaba, YouTube, etc.
3. The information about the format of each class will be provided in the syllabus and other materials so that students can be aware of it.
4. We will respond appropriately to the individual circumstances of students, such as those who have the possibility of becoming seriously ill after contracting COVID-19.
5. We will closely monitor the status of COVID-19 infections and flexibly conduct classes depending on the situation.