

2016 NEU Summer Camp of International Economics and Management Scholars

24 July – 4 Aug 2016, Shenyang, China

Your Summer at Northeastern University, China

Located in the traditional industrial base of Northeast China—Shenyang, Northeastern University, China (NEU) is a leading university directly affiliated to the Ministry of Education of China with around 40,000 students and over 2,600 teaching staff (528 professors), covering an area of over 625 acres.

Since its founding in 1923, NEU has been home to innovative thinking and technology transfer, with close ties to many historical events and figures in China. Guided by the university motto, “Live what you learn with unremitting efforts for a life-long self-improvement”, NEUers have created many firsts in Chinese technological innovation: the first university science and technology park in China, the first analogue electronic computer in China, the first listed software company (Neusoft) in China, the first CT scanner in China, to name just a few.

In 2014, the output value generated by the university technology industries reached 12 billion RMB, ranking 3rd in China, only after Peking University and Tsinghua University. After more than 90 years’ development, NEU has established partnerships with over 200 universities in 34 countries around the world, attaching great importance to comprehensive internationalization in the new round of university reform.

Cross-boarder Exchanges & Cross-disciplinary Cooperation

The 7th Summer Camp of International Economics and Management

Scholars at NEU will offer you a precious opportunity to study FOR FREE with brilliant young minds from around the world. Ten prestigious experts from different countries will give you lectures on cutting-edge issues of economics and management. Learning happens when students come together, engage in conversation and dialogue, and work collaboratively. You will get self-improvement in global vision, wisdom, English skills, personalities, creativity and collaborative spirit in the Camp. After the Summer Camp, there are 5 days of Chinese classes and Chinese culture experiencing courses for the international students.

The international students will

Enjoy Life Outside the Classroom

When you come here for the summer, you become a part of NEU and the ancient city of Shenyang. In addition to intensive studies and lectures, you will leave your young steps on the floors of Marshal Zhang's (NEU's 3rd President) Mansion, on the first walking street of China (Shenyang Zhongjie), in the garden of the first imperial palace of Qing Dynasty (Mukden Palace), and before the Mausoleum of Huang Taiji (Beiling Park), embedding a deep and special stroke in your life with the authentic experience in one of the most famous ancient cities in China.

When: 24 July – 4 Aug, 2016

Where: Northeastern University, Shenyang, China

Costs: No participation fee or registration fee for the participants selected

Transportation and accommodation are provided for the duration of the Camp, plus international air tickets from your country of residence to Shenyang and back.

Teaching Team: ➤ Barun S. Mitra, the founder and director of a nonprofit, independent public policy research and educational organization, recipient of the Julian Simon Award 2005 from the Competitive Enterprise Institute

- Casey Lartigue, Jr., co-editor of the book “Educational Freedom in Urban America,” an expert on minority education.
- Christopher Lingle, the Visiting Professor in the Department of Management of City University in Hong Kong
- Daniel J. Mitchell, a senior fellow specializing in fiscal policy, particularly tax reform and international tax competition
- Doug Bandow, a Senior Fellow at the Cato Institute, used to serve as a Special Assistant to President Ronald Reagan
- Josef Šíma, President of CEVRO Institute which is a small, private college offering BA and MA programs in private and public law, political science, international relations, sociology and economic policy
- Ken Schoolland, an associate professor of Economics and political science, director of the Entrepreneurship Center at Hawaii Pacific University in Honolulu
- Matt Dale, a Master Scheduler for Danaher Corporation
- Wolf Von Laer, a PhD student in political economy at King’s College London where he writes a thesis analyzing public choice processes in crises